

Terri K. Jordan, Ed.D.
Interim Superintendent

March 1, 2012

Dear Parent:

The El Paso Independent School District is sharing information about the District and your child's campus with you as part of its obligations under the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001.

The following information is available on the District's website
(http://www.episd.org/_district/nclb_rpt.php):

- Assessment results for the District and campuses in the aggregate and disaggregated by race/ethnicity, gender, disability status, migrant status, English proficiency, and economically disadvantaged showing two-year trend data for each subject and grade tested
 - By performance level,
 - With a comparison between annual objectives and actual performance for each student group, and
 - The percentage of each group of students not tested.
- Graduation rates for secondary school students.
- Performance of school district and campuses on adequate yearly progress (AYP) measures.
- Number and names of Title I schools identified as in need of improvement, including the state of improvement and AYP indicator missed for any schools identified for improvement.
- Professional qualifications of teachers in the District and campuses, including the percentage of teachers teaching with emergency or provisional credentials and the percentage of classes in the District and campuses that are not taught by highly qualified teachers, including a comparison between high- and low-poverty campuses within the District.

If you have difficulty accessing the information from home, each EPISD school library has computers available for you to access this information.

Sincerely,

Terri K. Jordan, Ed.D.
